On the 14th of August, 2024, Shri B. M. College of Pharmaceutical Education and Research (BMCPER) proudly organized the "Har Ghar Tiranga Yatra" as part of the celebrations leading up to Independence Day. The event took place at The M L Gandhi Higher Education Campus, and witnessed enthusiastic participation from 150 students and 15 staff members.

The Yatra was organized with the objective of fostering a sense of patriotism and unity among the students and staff. Participants gathered at the college premises early in the morning, each holding a national flag, symbolizing their pride and dedication towards the nation. The atmosphere was filled with enthusiasm and the spirit of independence, as the procession moved through the campus, covering all major areas.

During the Yatra, the participants chanted patriotic slogans and sang national songs, creating a vibrant and inspiring environment. The event was conducted with great discipline and respect, ensuring that the message of love and respect for the country was conveyed effectively to all.

The Yatra concluded with a brief address by the principal and senior staff members, who emphasized the importance of the national flag as a symbol of our sovereignty and unity. They also encouraged the students to always uphold the values of freedom and responsibility in their lives.

The event was a resounding success, achieving its aim of instilling a deep sense of national pride among all participants. The initiative was well-received, and it was a moment of collective pride for the entire college.

Conclusion: The "Har Ghar Tiranga Yatra" was a meaningful and impactful event, bringing together students and staff in a shared celebration of our national identity. It reinforced the values of patriotism and unity, leaving a lasting impression on all who participated.
