Introduction

The food Festival competition organized at B.M.C.P.E.R brought together 18 stalls, each offering a unique selection of cuisines. The event aimed to encourage innovation, teamwork, and practical skills among students while providing them with an opportunity to explore culinary arts. The diverse array of dishes and creative presentations fostered an energetic and lively environment, making the competition both enjoyable and enriching for participants and visitors alike.

Objective

- To encourage innovation in food preparation
- To develop teamwork and coordination
- To provide practical exposure to students
- To enhance presentation and marketing skills

Event Highlights

- The event saw vibrant and wholehearted participation from students, who showcased their culinary talents by preparing an impressive variety of innovative and culturally diverse dishes, contributing to an engaging and dynamic atmosphere.
- The occasion was honored by the presence of esteemed dignitaries, including Mr. M. V. Shah (President), Dr. G. J. Shah (Vice President of M. L. Gandhi Higher Education Society), Mr. N. R. Modi, Mr. Piyushbhai Patel, Mr. Subhashbhai Shah, Dr. A. D. Patel, Principal of B.M.C.P.E.R and Mr. Arpitbhai Joshi, Principal of the M.Sc. IT College. The distinguished guests explored the stalls and appreciated the wide array of food offerings.
- Beyond being a competition, the event served as a practical learning platform, fostering collaboration, creativity, and innovation while enhancing students' organizational and culinary skills.
